And is waiting there for the ones she loved.

DR HURSE AT ALLEN CHAPEL.

Sunday was a high day in Allen Chapel from the beginning of the morning service when Dr. Thomas preached a most wonderful sermon, which appears in this issue of The Sun, until the close of the night service. Especially in the afternoon, at 3 o'clock, were the services particularly attractive when St. Stephen's Baptist Church congregation, headed by their choir of forty voices, the St. Stephen's cadets, composed of twenty-four boys ranging from 6 to 15 years of age, and led by their indomitable pastor, Dr. J. W. Hurse, and his deacons, invaded Allen 250 strong, and one of the most glorious hallelujah, spiritual services ever held within its historic walls was enjoyed by the large congregation of all denominations who were in attendance. At the close of Dr. Hurse's powerful sermon $62.00 was laid on the tables to assist Dr. Thomas in his Conference claims. Allen Chapel's pastor, official claims, choir, auxiliaries and congregation will repay the visit to St. Stephens in the near future.

FORTUNE WEAVER VISITS OKLAHOMA.

Prominent Kansas City Negro Promoter Visits Oklahoma City.

Fortune J. Weaver, Kansas City's live wire and hustling business man, visited Oklahoma last week for the purpose of advertising the Afro-American Automobile Training School of Kansas City of which he is president and founder.

Mr. Weaver was a guest of the Negro State Fair Association at Muskogee. From there he went to Tulsa and Tahlequah; then to Smithville, just five miles out from Oklahoma City, to visit his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith better known as Deep Fork Smith, the cotton king, the founder of Smithville.

Mr. Weaver spent his boyhood days on the farm with his foster parents and says the credit is due them for his inspiration and whatever success he has made in life. Mr. Weaver is president and founder of the Afro-American Investment and Employment Company, Inc. Though this company has been the connecting link between the white property owners and business firms and the Negro citizens of Greater Kansas City he has made it possible for them to buy nice, modern homes in desirable sections of the city on the easy payment plan and to furnish their employment while paying for them.

He is the founder of the Kansas City branch of National Negro Business League and has been its president for the past nine years. Through this institution hundreds of Negro men and women have been encouraged to open up business enterprises of various kinds in and about Kansas City.

Through his earnest work in the League and his co-operation with the late Booker T. Washington, the National Negro Business League was entertained last year in Kansas City. At this meeting Mr. Weaver was elected as one of the members of the executive committee of the National Negro Business League.

Mr. Weaver and his devoted wife, Mrs. Beattie M. Weaver, also own and operate the Weaver Florist and Fruit Shop at 1510 East Eighteenth Street, Kansas City, Mo. This is one of the most popular and best patronized Negro business places in Kansas City. Their floral department furnishes hundreds of dollars worth of flowers each month for parties, weddings and funerals both in and out of the city. The various lodges and societies order their floral designs for funerals by telegraph or telephone and they are made up and sent in perfect condition hundreds of miles away.

Mr. Weaver says there is no line of work at the present time that offers the Negro man or boy such a fine opportunity as the automobile mechanic and chauffeur. Hundreds of good positions and openings for repair shops await the Negro who has the ability to repair, rebuild and keep automobiles running and for this reason he is giving his valuable time and attention to the establishment of the Afro-American Automobile Training School for Negroes. There are hundreds of our men and boys who have not had the opportunity to educate themselves along professional lines. Neither have they had a chance to learn a trade. This school offers them a rare opportunity to learn the most interesting trade of them all, and one that will enable them to go anywhere in the country and earn big wages.

It only takes eight weeks to master the trade and the cost is only $75 for the complete course in the school.

Mr. Weaver says the Negroes of Oklahoma own more automobiles than the Negroes of any other state in the Union, and the majority of them own high grade cars. Quite a number of our men and boys took out scholarships in the school and will report in Kansas City within the next thirty days.—The Black Dispatch, Oklahoma City, Okla.
